

11th Grade English 2022-2023 Summer Reading

Instructor: Coach Michael Hodum

REQUIRED READING:

Into the Wild by John Krakauer (Nonfiction) tells the true story of a young man(Christopher McCandless) that gave up all of his worldly possessions, hitchhiked across the United States and walked into the dangerous Alaskan Wilderness in an attempt to experience life in the setting of raw nature.

Students may purchase their own copy of the book or find it online at Amazon. Students will be tested on Into the Wild within the first two weeks of school.

Upcoming juniors should also choose one of the following classic American novels:

Old Man and the Sea by Ernest Hemingway

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain

The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald

During the first quarter, students will be given the opportunity to complete an extra credit assignment on one of these novels. Please email Coach Hodum if you have questions.
