

Summer Reading Assignment
2026-2027 School Year
English 10
mvanderpool@favikings.org

All 10th grade English students will read one book over the summer. Please note that there WILL be graded assignments related to this book. Students will NEED to bring the book to school so they can complete the in-class assignments. See book and related assignments below. Please feel free to email if you have any questions.

- All students are required to read And Then There Were None by Agatha Christie.
- There will be a test over the book on Monday, August 10.
- Students will complete two in-class assignments related to the book.
