Introduction

Your summer assignment is to read Tuesdays With Morrie by Mitch Albom. This is a chance for you to explore ideas and write in response to what you are reading and thinking. The assignment has two parts, and all work is due the first full class period of school. There will be a test on the novel as well.

You will need to purchase a copy of the novel. It is available in paperback on Amazon.

I look forward to being with you this fall. Please email me with any questions you might have.

Part 1-Organizing

After watching StudyTee's notes system, think about how you can benefit from this organization method that will be used for this summer and throughout the year. Watch both videos.

Assignment

Get a notebook of your choice with the style of paper that you prefer (lined, graph, blank, bullet point, etc.) We will use this notebook to create notes for the major works that we study, so find one that you like.

Why is it important?

The process of learning something often starts out feeling disorganized and unwieldy; the most important aspects are not always the most noticeable. Consolidation helps organize and solidify learning. This notebook will serve to consolidate what you have learned throughout the year, allowing you to retrieve the significant process we make. Make it your own.

Part II- Reading

Read the assigned novel, then create 2 pages of notes about the book. Organize however you'd like. I'm asking you to create two interesting pages of notes about your reading experience. It's up to you to make it awesome! I respect your ability to make connections to other texts, ideas, cultural perspectives, eras, and personal experiences.
